Skiing ability:

Current Standard of Skiing: Level..... (please see below)

Level 1 – Never put on a set of skis or have only done a taster session on a dry slope.

Level 2 – Confident to ski nursery slopes using a snow plough, with very limited experience.

Level 3 – Confident to ski easy blue runs with a mixture between ploughing and parallel skis but anxious on steep or icy sections.

Level 4 – Confident to ski with parallel skis on all blue runs at reasonable speed and happy to ski red runs but anxious and have to pick route carefully when the slope becomes steep or icy.

Level 5 – Confident to ski with parallel skis at a steady pace on all reds and easy black runs, but feel anxious on bumps or off piste. Would like to tackle harder slopes.

Level 6 – Confident to ski with parallel skis at high speeds on red runs and can confidently tackle bumps and off piste skiing.
