

GCSE

Fine Art

Course description

This is a general art course which involves drawing, painting, printing, and mixed media methods of working.

The controlled assessment element of the course comprises of 2 units of work that allow students to develop a range of ideas that lead to a final outcome.

Students should be prepared to work hard and show commitment to refining their artistic ability throughout the course.

Students must understand that this course will require them to attend after school sessions to continue and complete their practical work.

The use of a sketchbook is an integral part of the course where students will demonstrate and clearly show their ability to record through drawings and generating ideas and through clear visual research about other artists and images.

The development of their work is paramount as students need to document all aspects their visual journey. Students must take pride in their presentation and be able to analyse art work in detail.
