What Is A Fake-away?

What Is A Fake-away?

A fake-away is a take-away you make at home, trying to recreate some of the best known take away dishes.

Lots of people try to recreate the blend of herbs and spices in KFC, or make their own tomato sauce for pizza to rival Dominoes or Pizza Hut. They want to be able to produce their own version, possibly even better than the original, knowing what ingredients are used.

A fake-away can be based on any country or cultures take-away foods

TASK

Today you can find a number of recipes for fake-aways on line and in recipe books.

We would like you to make your mark on this popular home cooking trend.

Your challenge from us is to produce a stylish, well prepared fake-away of your own based on your favourite take-away.

Go crazy with this, ensure your presentation is well considered and ingredients are well balanced and complimentary.

Remember this is for Hospitality & Catering so the preparation and presentation aspects of this task are very important and should be well considered.

These can be vegan, vegetarian, to meet any specific dietary need, such as coeliac based around any culture or country.

The choice is yours.

I would like this once produced to be photographed and documented. I would like there to be a written break down of your fake-away, with a title and introduction to what was inside.

Now show us what you can do.

Please do your best to show us your understanding of hospitality & catering and try to incorporate this into your fake-away. I would like to see something really individual and interesting. Take some great well composed photographs and don't forget to do your little write up and title your work.

So go on and give it a go. I look forward to seeing what you create.
